

The founding Fathers had lovingly
given her,
her colours

Saffron indicating courage and strength

White indicating peace and truth

Green indicating fertility, growth and auspiciousness

But, After five decades of freedom

We still remain, Hindus and Muslims; Madrasi's and Marathi's and Bihari's;

Dalits and Brahmins

In the great land of India, there being no true Indian

A Nation

Where greasing the palm is not an exception,
but the rule

Individually

We are up against a “system” that is naturally averse to change,
for maintenance of status quo ensures :
equitable distribution of
bribe,
thriving of vote banks,
continuity of personal
fiefdoms,
reign of the corruption

The Genesis lies in

The sense of depravity of justice and lack of transparency in transactions

We refuse to nip a problem in the bud, allowing it to escalate

Judiciary is gasping under the combined pressures of anachronistic laws & Inefficient execution which leads to infinite delays – both procedural and practical

Which in turn

- Creates alienation and hatred
- Erodes faith in the system
- Forces otherwise honest people to be corrupt

Injustice Breeds Corruption

Why me ? we all ask

As it is easier to shrug,
pay the price
and move on,
than be the victim of “the system”

To Build

INDIA of my DREAMS

One NATION

One COUNTRY

One PEOPLE
